

I am asking that you reject the NAB's petition 04-160. Radio will only get better if there is competition. There should not be government protection to allow mediocrity. Only XM subscribers can access their stations and it is the subscribers right to be able to choose what is listened to. We need less regulation not more. Let the marketplace sort it out.